PRESS STATEMENT

Clifford Chance elects two new partners to the firm's partnership in Luxembourg

Leading international law firm Clifford Chance today announces the promotion of two new partners in Luxembourg effective 1 May 2021. They are part of a global cohort of 29 new partners drawn from all of the firm's market-leading practices and every region, with strong representation in particular across Europe, including the UK.

Stefanie Ferring, a member of the Luxembourg Banking, Finance & Capital Markets practice, specialises in general financing, real estate finance and insolvency and restructuring. Her practice focuses on cross-border financial restructurings as well as international and domestic real estate finance work for banks and financial investors. Stefanie is qualified in Luxembourg.

Maren Stadler-Tjan, a member of the Luxembourg Investment Funds practice, focuses on the structuring and set-up of alternative investment funds, including real estate, private equity, debt and infrastructure funds. Maren advises investors on their investments in private funds and leads the ESG initiative for the Luxembourg funds practice. Maren is qualified in Luxembourg and Germany.

Commenting on these promotions Steve Jacoby, Managing Partner of Clifford Chance in Luxembourg said: "I am delighted to welcome Stefanie and Maren into our firm's partnership, bringing the number of partners of the Luxembourg office to twelve. These nominations add further strength to our Banking, Finance & Capital Markets and Investment Funds practices, with a particular focus on the key development areas of financial investors and ESG."

Christian Kremer, Senior Partner added: "These promotions acknowledge excellent legal skills and strong commitment to deliver great services to our clients. Stefanie's focus on restructuring and insolvency, and Maren's knowledge of the German market, are of particular importance in the current legal landscape."
