

About LHH Luxembourg

LHH (formerly Badenoch + Clark and Spring Professional Luxembourg) is Luxembourg's preferred provider of quality Recruitment Solutions, Career Transition & Mobility, Leadership & Development and HR Advisory. We have a long and successful track record in assisting local companies and establishing subsidiaries for international firms. Located close to the Gare, our Luxembourg offices are a vibrant and culturally diverse group of nationalities. We speak various languages including French, German and English.

We base our success around our knowledge of the markets in which we operate, our extended network of relationships and our expertise in the recruitment and assessment process. If you're looking for the right career choices or to attract the best talent to your organisation, you'll want to work with a partner who can make things happen. Someone who understands your market and has a track record of success.

LHH is Luxembourg's preferred provider of quality Recruitment solutions (Temp and Perm), Executive search, Assessment, Outplacement and Coaching.

At LHH, we have been helping professionals make the right connections since the 80's. Whether you are taking the next step in your career or taking on a new talent, we support our valued customers to make intelligent business and career decisions.

Value a different level of expertise delivered in a refreshingly honest and open way.
